All the Ways to Get to Casa Blue Moon in Baveno

Casa Blue Moon is located at Via Stazione 4, 28831 Baveno (VB), in a central position close to the railway station and the town's main amenities. It can therefore be easily reached from various directions, even without a car.

The best option depends on where you are travelling from. Here are the main alternatives by train, bus, boat, taxi and car.

By train

From Milan

- Depart from Milano Porta Garibaldi.
- Look for a regional train on the Milan–Domodossola line that stops at Baveno.
- Get off at Baveno station and walk to the apartment.

This is generally the easiest option from Milan. Check the timetable on Trenitalia.Trenitalia

From Milan Malpensa Airport

- Take the Malpensa Express towards Busto Arsizio Nord.
- Go to Busto Arsizio FS railway station.
- Continue by train to Baveno, checking the connection.

Alternatively, consider the seasonal Alibus bus service, described below.

From Turin, Novara or other Italian cities

- Travel to a station connected to the Simplon line, such as Novara or Milan
- continue to Baveno. The route and changes 1épend on your departure city.

From Domodossola or Switzerland

- From Domodossola, take a regional train towards Milan and get off at Baveno
- If travelling from Brig or elsewhere in Switzerland, check the international connection to Domodossola.

To check actual departure times, you can also consult il tabellone ufficiale RFI della stazione di Baveno .

By bus

From Malpensa: the seasonal Alibus Lago Maggiore connects the airport with destinations around the lake, with stops in and around Baveno. Check the exact stop, schedule and mandatory booking with SAF Duemila.SAF Duemila

From Milan, Novara or Domodossola: regional bus services run to the Lake Maggiore area, but availability and frequency vary by route.

From Stresa: consider a local bus or taxi to reach Baveno.
Per i collegamenti locali consulta la pagina ufficiale dei trasporti di Baveno .

By boat on Lake Maggiore

From Stresa: you can reach Baveno by boat when a service is operating.
From Verbania/Intra: check available services to Baveno or nearby destinations.
From Arona or Angera: check public boat routes and any necessary connections.

See Navigazione Laghi – Lake Maggiore. Not all connections are direct or available year-round, so please check the service for your specific travel date before planning your trip.

By car

If you decide to drive or rent a car, Baveno can be reached via the A26 motorway, taking the Baveno exit.
From Milan: take the A8 towards the Lakes, then the A26 towards Gravellona Toce.
From Turin: take the A4 towards Milan, then the A26 towards Gravellona Toce.
From Switzerland via the Simplon: take the SS33 towards Milan, then the A26 and exit at Baveno.
From Canton Ticino: take the SS34 towards Verbania Fondotoce, then the SS33 towards Baveno.
Once you arrive, there are several free parking spaces near the apartment.

By taxi or private transfer

There are many transfer operators you can contact to request a quote for a direct transfer to Via Stazione 4.
I will be happy to recommend a few providers for you to contact.
Ask for the total price, any waiting-time charges and availability for your arrival time. It is best to book in advance for a transfer from Malpensa.

How to Get Around Once You Arrive

On foot, around the town centre
The lakeside promenade, bars, restaurants and historic centre are all easy to explore on foot.

By boat, to the Borromean Islands
You can arrange a visit to the islands from Baveno pier. For timetables, fares and routes, consult Navigazione Laghi – Lake Maggiore. Alternatively, Baveno also has operators offering sightseeing speedboat trips.

By train or bus, to Stresa
Stresa is close to Baveno and offers additional connections and departures for the islands. The train is a good alternative, while buses can be useful for some local routes: always check return services.

The great thing about Casa Blue Moon is that once you arrive in Baveno, you can leave the car behind: the town centre and the ferry landing for the Borromean Islands are within walking distance.
